Meet Our Starting Five

There are banks, yes.

So many banks...

Then there is this Bank.
First Community Bank.

So very different, this Bank.

Programs, sure. All banks have programs. Rates, points, products galore. But this Bank, this First Community Bank—it's more. More out and about. More willing to dazzle, to decide, to deliver.

And home-grown, oh yes. The five people pictured here: A cumulative 116 years of living in Petaluma. All industry veterans, all drawn to this Bank because they're convinced—as you will be, too—of its already emerging identity as a Bank that is like no other bank at all.
